

LIABILITY SHEET (WAIVER AND RELEASE OF LIABILITY)

In order to ensure smooth and safe use of the climbing wall in Windtower Experience, the following rules will apply so that you could spend your time in a safe and exciting manner:

1. The climber's health status must be such as to enable climbing. If you are in doubt, please consult a doctor.
2. The climber must be aware of his or her health status and will be responsible for his or her well-being and safety. In the case of any special diagnosis, the climber must inform staff of the climbing wall. Windtower Experience will not be liable for any health damage or injuries from climbing, and will not compensate for any losses arising from such causes.
3. Minors must be accompanied on the climbing wall by an adult and/or present an authorisation from their legal representative to the effect that they can independently climb on climbing walls (and that they have earlier experience). Running or playing in the climbing area is prohibited. There is a serious risk of injury in the event of falling from the climbing wall! Please inform your children about it.
4. The climbing wall can be used only during the opening hours of the climbing wall, as established by the instructors. Climbing on the wall without the permission of staff is prohibited.
5. The climber will get access to the climbing wall after he or she has presented a valid and undamaged ticket for the climbing wall to staff. Tickets are not valid if damaged. The duration of use is indicated in the price list.
6. It is prohibited to wear outdoor footwear in the area and on the climbing wall. You can leave your outdoor footwear in the area for storing outdoor shoes.
7. Food, drinks, glass containers or any other items that can pose a risk for the climber or the others are prohibited in the climbing area. In the interest of everyone's safety, you are not allowed to be in the climbing area if you are intoxicated, and you may not use any glass containers.
8. You have to remove any jewellery etc. before climbing. Rings and watches are particularly hazardous to the climber. You can leave any valuable items in a locker. If you cannot remove a ring from your finger, it will have to be taped.
9. Your pockets must be empty while you are climbing. You can leave any valuable items in a locker.
10. Climbing while intoxicated, whether by alcohol or any other substance, is strictly prohibited. There is zero tolerance for such substances in Windtower Experience, except in the event of a medical necessity.
11. Climbing in socks, barefoot or with bare upper body is prohibited.
12. When you start to climb, you must carefully check the safety of the falling area: it must be clear of any people and unnecessary items.
13. When you are moving around or climbing in the climbing area, you must carefully check that you are not moving directly below another climber or climbing directly above another climber.
14. Climbing is allowed up to the point where the designated area ends.
15. Only climbing holds are permitted for use on the climbing wall. Loops or other parts of

- the climbing wall may not be used.
16. Please inform climbing wall staff immediately if you notice any loose or broken holds or anything else unusual. Broken climbing holds may cause injuries to climbers.
 17. If the climber or anyone else is in need of help, please inform climbing wall staff immediately.
 18. Only liquid chalk or bagged chalk balls may be used in the hall. Loose or block chalk is not permitted.
 19. You are not permitted to cross the climbing wall area on the climbing wall.
 20. The climber must be cautious and considerate to other climbers. Caution means not falling on anyone and not letting anyone fall on you.
 21. Please disinfect your rented climbing shoes after using them and the training equipment to its proper place. Please keep tidy and clean.
 22. To belay oneself or to climb with a rope belayed from below, the climber has to pass the belay test of Windtower Experience or present an appropriate climbing card of Tallinn Climbing Club.
 23. The climber must carefully read the Liability Sheet and the Rules before starting to climb, and observe them carefully. Any person violating the rules may be escorted out of the climbing area or, if necessary, Windtower Experience by staff of Windtower Experience. In such cases, the price of the ticket will not be repaid.
 24. Staff of the climbing wall may, at any time, check if the rules are followed.
 25. Staff of the climbing wall is not responsible for any unattended personal belongings.
 26. When climbing with belay from below, the climber must use a rope of an appropriate length that conforms to the producer's requirements. If you use your own equipment, make sure that it is safe.

Voluntary participation

I, the undersigned, hereby confirm that I am participating in any climbing activities in Windtower Experience voluntarily.

Please note the warning by the Estonian Climbing Association that climbing is an activity that may result in injuries.

Persons participating in such activity must be aware of, and accept, the risks and be responsible for their activity and any consequences, including when they participate in training and/or sessions.

Release of liability

I am aware of the risks inherent in climbing and hereby confirm that Windtower Experience and its representatives will not be responsible for any consequences of my activities, including any damage to health or property. The release of liability will not apply to any damage that has been negligently or intentionally caused by the Organiser or its representative.

This statement will release Windtower Experience and its representatives of any liability for accidents that may occur when the participant enters or leaves the premises of Windtower Experience or trains there, or for any consequences that may be caused by climbing.

Insurance

I am aware that in most cases, ordinary insurance will not compensate for accidents related to climbing.
